

Exploits Discovery's Jeff Swinoga on Securing Competitive Assets in the Newfoundland Gold Region

written by InvestorNews | March 11, 2024

In an engaging interview at PDAC 2024 with Tracy Weslosky of InvestorNews, Jeff Swinoga, the President, CEO, and Director of Exploits Discovery Corp. (CSE: NFLD | OTCQX: NFLDF), shares insights into the company's strategic positioning and future prospects in the Newfoundland gold sector. Swinoga emphasizes the value of their holdings, stating, "We've got a very strategic claim called Bullseye, and in the last year, there's been 5 gold discoveries just South of our Bullseye property." This remark underscores the significant potential of their assets in a region that's rapidly becoming a hotspot for gold exploration. With a dedicated local team in Gander, NL, Exploits is well-placed to capitalize on the burgeoning gold exploration scene.

The focus of Exploits Discovery Corp.'s exploration strategies and geological interests are crucial to its ambitions, particularly along the Appleton Fault Zone. By following a path similar to industry pioneers, the company's exploration efforts at the Bullseye and the larger Gazebo properties are poised to potentially redefine its prospects. Swinoga detailed the competitive edge and determination that led Exploits to secure these prime locations, showcasing the company's resourcefulness and strategic planning in the high-stakes domain of mineral exploration.

Recent developments at the company, especially the promising results from the expanded till sampling program at the Gazeebow South property, highlight the potential for significant gold mineralization along the Appleton Fault Zone. This advancement solidifies the northward extension of gold zones, contributing to an optimistic outlook for Exploits Discovery Corp. With upcoming assay results from the Bullseye property and the plan for further exploration, Exploits is strategically positioned to explore the geological riches of its claims, marking a potential trajectory for its future in Newfoundland's gold exploration landscape.
