

InvestorNews Returns to PDAC 2026 as Official Media Sponsor on Stage 1 (Level 700)

written by Tracy Hughes | February 26, 2026

TORONTO, ON – February 26, 2026 – InvestorNews.com announced today that it is returning as a media sponsor for PDAC 2026, the world’s premier mineral exploration and mining convention taking place March 1–4, 2026 in Toronto.

As part of its on-site media sponsorship, InvestorNews.com will be positioned on Stage 1 – Level 700, offering attendees a dedicated destination for executive interviews and capital markets conversations focused on the global mining and critical minerals landscape.

“PDAC is where the world’s mineral industry meets capital—ideas become partnerships, and partnerships become projects,” said Tracy Hughes, Founder and CEO. “For more than a decade, we’ve been proud to support PDAC as a media sponsor and to amplify the people building the next generation of mineral supply chains. Our mission has always been simple: For Investors. By Investors.”

PDAC describes PDAC 2026 as a global convening for the mineral exploration and mining development community, bringing together an audience of more than 27,000 attendees from over 125 countries and hosting more than 1,300 exhibitors and 700 presenters.

InvestorNews.com is recognized within PDAC’s 2026 media partner roster, and PDAC’s onsite media guidance highlights dedicated media-partner stages and related visibility opportunities for attendees across the convention footprint.

InvestorNews.com will publish on-the-ground coverage and executive interviews during PDAC 2026, distributing conversations to investors and industry stakeholders through its digital channels, including video and podcast distribution.

InvestorNews.com is also the official media partner for the Critical Minerals Institute, supporting its mission through regular virtual events and the annual Critical Minerals Institute Summit Series, helping foster collaboration, research, and innovation across the critical minerals sector.
