

Argentina Metals Announces TSX Venture Exchange Conditional Listing Approval

written by Raj Shah | June 5, 2026

June 05, 2026 (Source) – Argentina Metals Corp. (“AMC” or the “Company”) is pleased to announce that it has received conditional approval to list its common shares on the TSX Venture Exchange (“TSXV”) under the symbol “VLLC”. The Company expects its first trading day on the TSXV will occur on or around June 15, 2026.

“Receiving conditional approval to list on the TSX Venture Exchange marks an important milestone for Argentina Metals and reflects the significant progress our team has made in advancing our strategy in Mendoza,” said Raymond D. Harari, Chief Executive Officer of Argentina Metals. “We believe this listing will enhance our visibility within the capital markets, improve liquidity for shareholders and support our continued focus on unlocking the potential of our district-scale land package in Argentina.”

The listing of the Company’s common shares on the TSXV is subject to the satisfaction of certain conditions and receipt of final acceptance by the TSXV. The Company will provide a further update confirming the anticipated TSXV trading commencement date once determined.

About Argentina Metals Corp.

Argentina Metals is a Canadian-domiciled mineral exploration company focused on the exploration and development of copper assets in highly prospective, underexplored districts in Mendoza, Argentina. Argentina Metals holds a 100% interest in a district-scale land package in Mendoza, Argentina, with no underlying royalties or encumbrances, other than royalties payable to the Province of Mendoza. The Company's portfolio is strategically positioned within a geologically favorable belt with demonstrated copper mineralization and strong discovery potential. Argentina Metals' management team comprises seasoned executives from Latin America, Europe, and Canada, bringing extensive experience across mining and mineral exploration, capital markets and the energy sector.
