Coeptis Secures Five New Clients With Total Contract Value of $1.7 Million Dollars With More On The Horizon Signaling AI-Driven Marketing Innovations in Biopharma for Coeptis

January 7, 2025 (Source) – Coeptis Therapeutics Holdings, Inc. (Nasdaq: COEP) (the “Company” or “Coeptis”), a biopharmaceutical company focused on pioneering cell therapy platforms for cancer, autoimmune, and infectious diseases, is excited to announce the initial rollout of its recently introduced NexGenAI Affiliates Network platform. With five new customers already signed on to leverage the platform’s cutting-edge AI-driven marketing solutions, Coeptis believes it can bolster its operational landscape and amplify revenue growth prospects.

The signing of multiple Managed Services Agreements, valued at $1.25 million dollars and an anticipated revenue stream of $450,000 supporting recurring monthly cash revenues, in addition to any new revenues generated from additional contracts with prospective clients, underscores Coeptis’ view of the immediate market opportunity for its NexGenAI Affiliates Network platform and innovative technology.

Dave Mehalick, President and CEO of Coeptis, stated, “We are pleased to see an enthusiastic uptake of our NexGenAI marketing platform. This early engagement highlights the power of AI-driven capabilities while supporting our vision to innovate and lead in highly competitive sectors. We are focused on a rapid rollout of our platform throughout 2025, to create opportunities for enhanced customer engagement and supporting improved marketing strategies.”

As Coeptis Therapeutics continues expanding its business plan, the early traction of the NexGenAI marketing platform reinforces the commitment of Coeptis to deliver exceptional value in the biopharmaceutical sector and pioneering technology in the marketing landscape. Coeptis is dedicated to unlocking the full potential of AI in marketing and solidifying its position as a forward-thinking leader in biopharmaceutical advancements.

Artificial Intelligence is transforming the marketing industry and has the potential to significantly impact the broader economy. Through advanced algorithms and data analytics, AI marketing platforms enable businesses to enhance personalization, optimize campaigns in real time, and gain valuable insights into consumer behavior. This technology is improving operational efficiencies and facilitating innovative strategies for consumer engagement. As AI continues to evolve, it is expected to play a crucial role in shaping various sectors and driving advancements in both business practices and daily life.

Mr. Mehalick went on to say “We expect the integration of these AI-powered tools by Coeptis to allow us to elevate our revenue growth and marketing processes and to enhance relationships with existing and prospective customers. As Coeptis continues its focus on innovation and expansion, we are encouraged by the early traction of our NexGenAI Affiliates Network platform and excited to build on such early success in our effort to deliver exceptional value to the biopharmaceutical sector. While this represents initial growth, we foresee this figure multiplying significantly as we engage in additional contracts with prospective clients that we are currently in discussions with, reinforcing our strategic intention to expand and solidify our foothold in the market. Our recent achievements mark just the beginning of a promising growth path as we work tirelessly to secure multiple contracts with numerous organizations and drive exceptional value for our shareholders.”
