

DIAGNOS to Extend Stock Warrants Exercise Period

written by Raj Shah | August 15, 2025

August 15, 2025 (Source) – Diagnos Inc. (“DIAGNOS” or the “Corporation”) (TSX Venture: ADK, OTCQB: DGNOF, FWB: 4D4A), a pioneer in early detection of critical health issues using advanced technology based on Artificial Intelligence (AI), announces that it intends to extend the exercise period of an aggregate of 650,000 stock warrants (each a “Warrant”) issued as part of a non-brokered private placement of units initially announced on March 22, 2024. The Warrants initial exercise period is set to expire on September 22, 2025.

Subject to the TSX Venture Exchange (the “Exchange”) consent, the extended expiry date shall be August 5, 2026 (the “Amendment”). All other provisions of the Warrants, such as the Warrants exercise price of $0.40 per common share of the Corporation, will remain unchanged and fully in effect during the extended exercise period.

DIAGNOS is also announcing a correction to its August 13th, 2025 press release. The extended expiry date of an aggregate of 1,414,286 Warrants, issued as part of a non-brokered private placement of units initially announced on February 27, 2024, shall be August 5, 2026 instead of February 27, 2029, as stated. The management of the Corporation sincerely apologize for any confusion this situation might have caused.

The Corporation will issue a follow up press release solely in the case where the Exchange rejects the application for the Amendment.

All monies quoted in this press release shall be stated in lawful money of Canada.
