- iHerb adds to Element's online distribution channels in both North America and internationally

Element Nutritional Sciences Inc. (CSE:ELMT)(the "Company" or "Element"), is pleased to announce that it has received its first purchase orders for Rejuvenate™ plant-based single serve pouches from iHerb.

Founded in 1996, iHerb is an e-commerce platform offering over 30,000 products from 1,200 brands to millions of customers. iHerb ships directly from GMP certified, state-of-the-art and climate-controlled warehouses to over 150 countries around the world.

The addition of Rejuvenate™ products to the iHerb platform not only adds to the Company's online presence, but also provides an avenue for international sales. Rejuvenate™ products can currently be purchased online through amazon.com, amazon.ca, rejuvenatemuscle.com and rejuvenatemuscle.ca. Additionally, through retail partnerships, the Company's products are currently available at over 8,000 locations across North America, which is expected to increase to over 16,000 once shipments to Walgreens are completed.

"We are thrilled to be partnering with iHerb to bolster our online and global distribution presence. As global leaders in the online sale of natural products, iHerb is a credible source for health products for millions of customers around the world. This partnership also represents an important milestone as Element drives sales of Rejuvenate™ products with both established retailers and e-commerce organizations," said Stuart Lowther, Chief Executive Officer.

Forward Looking Statements

This news release contains "forward-looking information" and "forward-looking statements" (collectively, "forward looking statements") within the meaning of the applicable Canadian securities legislation. All statements, other than statements of historical fact, are forward-looking statements and are based on expectations, estimates and projections as at the date of this news release. Any statement that involves discussions with respect to predictions, expectations, beliefs, plans, projections, objectives, assumptions, future events or performance (often but not always using phrases such as “expects”, or “does not expect”, “is expected”, “anticipates” or “does not anticipate”, “plans”, “budget”, “scheduled”, “forecasts”, “estimates”, “believes” or “intends” or variations of such words and phrases or stating that certain actions, events or results “may” or “could”, “would”, “might” or “will” be taken to occur or be achieved) are not statements of historical fact and may be forward-looking statements. In this news release, forward looking statements relate, among other things, to: the expected number of retail locations with the Company’s products.

These forward-looking statements are based on reasonable assumptions and estimates of management of the Company at the time such statements were made. Actual future results may differ materially as forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors which may cause the actual results, performance or achievements of the Company to materially differ from any future results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Such factors, among other things, include: fluctuations in general macroeconomic conditions; expectations regarding the size of the United States and Canadian health, nutraceutical and wellness markets and changing consumer habits; the viability of the Company’s products; availability of distribution channels for the Company’s product offerings; the ability of the Company to successfully achieve its business objectives; plans for expansion; successful development of the Company’s proposed products; the presence of laws and regulations that may impose restrictions or recalls on the sale of the Company’s products in the United States and Canada; customer and distributor relations; fluctuations in securities markets; and the inability of the Company to obtain adequate insurance to cover risks and hazards. Although the forward-looking statements contained in this news release are based upon what management of the Company believes, or believed at the time, to be reasonable assumptions, the Company cannot assure shareholders that actual results will be consistent with such forward-looking statements, as there may be other factors that cause results not to be as anticipated, estimated or intended. Readers should not place undue reliance on the forward-looking statements and information contained in this news release. The Company assumes no obligation to update the forward-looking statements of beliefs, opinions, projections, or other factors, should they change, except as required by law.
