Commitment to Continued Investor Outreach in the Era of COVID-19

Energy Fuels is committed to doing our part to contain the spread of the COVID-19 virus, including eliminating travel and conference attendance for the time being. At the same time, Energy Fuels believes it is critically important to maintain open lines of communication with the investor community at all times, especially in today's challenging environment. In addition to the webcast this Friday, the Company may host additional conference calls and/or webcasts when we have significant announcements or when otherwise warranted in the coming weeks or months. We will be able to provide investors with a forum to speak directly to Senior Management, while also adhering to the recommendations of authorities related to the novel coronavirus. In addition, anyone is welcome to call or email the Company at any time using the investor contact information at the end of this press release.

About Energy Fuels: Energy Fuels is a leading US-based uranium mining company, supplying U₃O₈ to major nuclear utilities. The Company also produces vanadium from certain of its projects, as market conditions warrant. Its corporate offices are near Denver, Colorado, and all of its assets and employees are in the United States. Energy Fuels holds three of America's key uranium production centers, the White Mesa Mill in Utah, the Nichols Ranch in-situ recovery ("ISR") Project in Wyoming, and the Alta Mesa ISR Project in Texas. The White Mesa Mill is the only conventional uranium mill operating in the U.S. today, has a licensed capacity of over 8 million pounds of U_3O_8 per year, and has the ability to produce vanadium when market conditions warrant. The Nichols Ranch ISR Project is in operation and has a licensed capacity of 2 million pounds of U_3O_8 per year. The Alta Mesa ISR Project is currently on standby. In addition to the above production facilities, Energy Fuels also has one of the largest NI 43-101 compliant uranium resource portfolios in the U.S., and several uranium and uranium/vanadium mining projects on standby and in various stages of permitting and development. The primary trading market for Energy Fuels' common shares is the NYSE American under the trading symbol "UUUU", and the Company's common shares are also listed on the Toronto Stock Exchange under the trading symbol "EFR." Energy Fuels' website is www.energyfuels.com.
