FinCanna Capital Corp. (“FinCanna”) (CSE: CALI), (OTCQB: FNNZF), a royalty company for the U.S. licensed cannabis industry is pleased to announce that it has advanced a second tranche of capital of US$875,000 further to its Royalty Agreement with QVI, Inc. which stands for, Quality, Value, Integrity, doing business as “The Galley”, a cannabis infused product manufacturer located in Sonoma County, California.

QVI is completing the build out of its 8,300 square foot facility in Santa Rosa, CA and expects to be in full commercial operation in late summer 2019. The facility known as “The Galley”, is built to FDA and CDPH standards and is focused on high demand areas of production – Edibles, Topicals, Tinctures, Chocolate, Hard Candies, Gummies and Beverages. “The Galley” will be differentiated from its peers by its automated capabilities to produce virtually all high-value cannabis products under one roof. This one-stop production expertise is attractive to top tier in-state and out-of-state brands. The premium equipment and operational design will allow “The Galley” to rapidly scale production as demand escalates.

Additionally, QVI expects to receive its Occupancy Permit from the City of Santa Rosa upon completion of certain remaining construction items. The Occupancy Permit is required prior to the issuance of a Manufacturing License, by the California Department of Public Health Office of Manufactured Cannabis Safety. The QVI facility has been inspected by this department and expects that once in possession of its Occupancy Permit that it will have satisfied the remaining requirements for issuance of its Manufacturing License.

QVI is experiencing strong demand for its services and based on existing MOU's, its first 12-month revenue upon commercial production is projected to meet or exceed US$7 million. Revenue is expected to increase substantially as operations and marketing efforts utilizing the founders' wide network of industry participants is activated. Additionally, "The Galley" will produce its own line of branded products, "Big Fish Edibles".

"We are very pleased to advance a 2nd tranche of capital as the QVI team continues to execute," said Andriyko Herchak, CEO of FinCanna Capital. "Our investment will support the team in completing construction on their industry leading facility as they move towards commercial launch later this summer. We are impressed with the potential for rapid scalability which will have a strong impact on our bottom line."

According to the Royalty Agreement, FinCanna agreed to fund QVI Inc. US$3 million tranches. An initial tranche of US$1.25 million was advanced previously and together with this tranche has now delivered US$2.125 million with the remaining US$875,000 to be advanced after QVI has commenced commercial operations and achieved predetermined sales targets. According to the agreement, FinCanna will receive a tiered corporate royalty, adjusted based on revenues levels, ranging from 15% to 6% of QVI's total revenues, with the top royalty rate of 15% on the first US$20 million of annual sales until cumulative royalties to FinCanna of US$10 million.

The principals' of QVI have decades of award-winning edibles manufacturing and food production experience. Co-founder, President and CEO Gina Pippin has 23 years of business and financial management and decades long experience in efficient production management and food safety. Co-founder, Annie Holman, has had a career spanning 25 years in marketing and media. She is a former co-owner of Derby Bakery Cannabis Edibles that produced high-end, award-winning products, winning several "Emerald Cup – Best Edibles" honours as well as first and second place prizes from "Edibles List – Best of Awards."
