Sergeant, a London-based chartered accountant, brings a distinguished background in finance and technology to his role at Fineqia. Warren began his career advising global hedge funds like Arrowgrass Capital Partners LLP, Fundsmith LLP, and the Opportunity Fund, which managed significant multi-billion-pound assets. Later, he transitioned into entrepreneurship in South Africa, successfully launching two professional service consulting companies, Seach Business Consulting and Izala Verificators.

Subsequently, he worked with Fineqia's CEO Rangar as the Director of International Finance at PremFina, an insurtech challenger in the UK's insurance finance industry that was previously founded by Rangar. Sergeant helped spearhead PremFina's international growth and expansion in Europe as well as provide strategic advice and negotiation support.

"Warren's track record and experience uniquely position him to support Fineqia's digital asset initiatives and growth plan," said Bundeep Singh Rangar, CEO of Fineqia. "Having worked with him, I can vouch for his tremendous skills and expertise."

Sergeant had previously played a vital role in the billion-pound expansion of Cory Riverside Energy, a key player in the UK's energy and resource management sector, showcasing his financial management expertise during a critical growth phase.

"Fineqia's commitment to innovation in digital assets aligns with my passion for shaping the future of finance," said Warren Sergeant. "I'm excited to be part of its success and furthering its position as a leader in the industry."

Sergeant's appointment as Fineqia's CFO will be formally confirmed subject to regulatory clearances.

The Company wishes to thank Stephan McCann for his role as Interim CFO since August 2022 who will be resigning from the position.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

Some statements in this release may contain forward-looking information (as defined under applicable Canadian securities laws) ("forward-looking statements"). All statements, other than of historical fact, that address activities, events or developments that Fineqia (the "Company") believes, expects or anticipates will or may occur in the future (including, without limitation, statements regarding potential acquisitions and financings) are forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements are generally identifiable by use of the words "may", "will", "should", "continue", "expect", "anticipate", "estimate", "believe", "intend", "plan" or "project" or the negative of these words or other variations on these words or comparable terminology. Forward-looking statements are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties, many of which are beyond the Company's ability to control or predict, that may cause the actual results of the Company to differ materially from those discussed in the forward-looking statements. Factors that could cause actual results or events to differ materially from current expectations include, among other things, without limitation, the failure to obtain sufficient financing, and other risks disclosed in the Company's public disclosure record on file with the relevant securities regulatory authorities. Any forward-looking statement speaks only as of the date on which it is made except as may be required by applicable securities laws. The Company disclaims any intent or obligation to update any forward-looking statement except to the extent required by applicable securities laws.
