

Giyani Adds Stockhouse To Its Investor Relations Partners And Launches A Comprehensive Global Marketing Campaign

written by Raj Shah | February 23, 2018

February 23, 2018 (Source) – Giyani Metals Corporation (TSX-V:WDG) (GR:A2DUU8) (“Giyani” or the “Company”) is pleased to announce the addition of Stockhouse to its existing network of investor relations partners and launches a comprehensive global marketing campaign with the objectives of marketing the Company, and articulating its plan to become a leading supplier of manganese to the battery market. The Company is actively continuing to raise awareness of its great potential in new markets through a series of dedicated road shows and top industry events.

Stockhouse, North America’s largest information platform dedicated to small cap natural resource companies, is a significant addition to the Company’s existing network of IR partners that includes, InvestorIntel, Investing News Network, and German IR firm DGWA . With more than 1 million unique visitors per month Stockhouse will expand Giyani’s reach to a much larger retail investor base. The contract cost is $68,466 per year.

Additionally, management is actively conducting a global road show to introduce Giyani to new institutional investors in Asia and Europe and penetrate new markets. With early signs of renewed interest from the investment community in the commodities sector in 2018, Giyani is well positioned to capitalize on this forecasted recovery with its advanced stage high grade manganese project in the Kanye Basin, Botswana, Africa.

“This comprehensive marketing strategy is key to our success in communicating the real strengths and differentiating advantages that we have as one of the leading emerging opportunities in the high grade, high purity, manganese space aimed at the battery market” said, CEO, Robin Birchall.
