

Ideanomics Delays Filing of Annual Report on Form 10-K

written by Raj Shah | March 16, 2022

March 15, 2022 (Source) – Ideanomics (NASDAQ: IDEX) (“Ideanomics” or the “Company”) today announced that the filing of its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2021 (the “Form 10-K”) would not occur prior to the extended March 16, 2022 deadline.

On March 2, 2022, the Company filed a Notification of Late Filing on Form 12b-25 (the “Form 12b-25”), indicating that the filing of its Form 10-K will be delayed. Although the Company has dedicated significant resources to the completion of finalizing its audited consolidated financial statements and related disclosures for inclusion in the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2021 and the required assessment of its internal controls over financial reporting as required by Section 404 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act, the Company is unable to file its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the period ending December 31, 2021 (the “Form 10-K”) prior to March 16, 2022, the extension period provided by the 12b-25. Additional time is needed by the Company to complete its review of the financial statements included in the Form 10-K in order to ensure a complete, accurate Annual Report. The delay is due primarily to additional information and investigation needed in relation to the Company’s China operations in order to complete the audit. The Company is working diligently to complete the audit and file the 10-K as soon as practicable.
