May 5, 2021 (Source) – Imperial Mining Group Ltd. (“Imperial”) (TSX VENTURE: IPG; OTCQB: IMPNF) announces that Donald S. Bubar, Imperial’s Chairman of the Board of Directors since the corporation’s founding in 2018, has submitted his resignation as a member of the board, effective immediately. Mr. Bubar has agreed to continue to serve Imperial as a technical and strategic advisor. Peter J. Cashin, Imperial’s Founder, President and CEO was nominated by the Board of Directors to assume the role of Chairman on an interim basis until a new Board member has been identified and nominated who can also serve as an independent Chairman.

In submitting his resignation, Mr. Bubar noted that his duties and responsibilities as President and CEO of Avalon Advanced Material Inc. have greatly increased over the past year and advised that he no longer had enough time to fulfill his responsibilities as Imperial’s Board Chair and, accordingly, decided to step down.

“The Board of Directors and myself wish to express our gratitude for Don’s time and expertise in aiding with the building of Imperial Mining to become one of North America’s leading explorers and developers of critical mineral resources, particularly scandium,” said Peter Cashin, Imperial’s President & Chief Executive Officer. “I am pleased that Don will continue to support Imperial’s growth as an advisor to the Corporation. We want to thank him for his important contribution to the Corporation and its shareholders and wish him success with all of his future endeavors.”

The Board has formed a selection committee with the task of identifying and inviting potential candidates to assume the role and to individually vet those best suited to assume his position. Numerous high-quality candidates have been identified and are currently being evaluated. The introduction of the new Chairman will be made publicly upon completion of the vetting process.
