written by Raj Shah | May 29, 2018

✖ May 29, 2018 (Source) – Largo Resources Ltd. (“Largo” or the “Company”) (TSX: LGO) (OTCQX: LGORF) is pleased to announce that the Company has been upgraded from the OTCQB® Venture Market and will commence trading on the OTCQX® Best Market (“OTCQX”) under the symbol LGORF effective immediately. The Company’s common shares will continue to trade on the Toronto Stock Exchange under the symbol LGO.

Mark Smith, President and Chief Executive Officer for Largo, stated: “Upgrading our common shares to the OTCQX will provide greater visibility and improve liquidity for current and prospective Largo shareholders in the U.S. markets.”

He continued: “We are also pleased to report we are in the final preparation stages for the Maracás Menchen Mine expansion plan with construction scheduled to begin in June. We believe 2018 will be a year of solid growth and profitability for the Company as we continue to deliver on consistent production results at Maracás while realizing a significantly increased vanadium pricing environment.”

About Largo Resources

Largo is a Toronto-based strategic mineral company focused on the production of vanadium flake, high purity vanadium flake and high purity vanadium powder at the Maracás Menchen Mine located in Bahia State, Brazil. Largo remains one of the lowest cost producers of vanadium in the world and is directly exposed to and is benefiting from the record increases in vanadium seen today. Largo is the only pure-play producer of vanadium and also has interests in a portfolio of other projects, including: a 100% interest in the Currais Novos Tungsten Tailings Project in Brazil; a 100% interest in the Campo Alegre de Lourdes Iron-Vanadium Project in Brazil; and a 100% interest in the Northern Dancer Tungsten-Molybdenum property in the Yukon Territory, Canada. The Company's common shares are principally listed on the Toronto Stock Exchange under the symbol "LGO". For more information on Largo, please visit our website at www.largoresources.com.
