May 13, 2022 (Source) – Neo Performance Materials Inc. (“Neo”, the “Company”) (TSX: NEO) released its first quarter 2022 financial results. The financial statements and management’s discussion and analysis (“MD&A”) of these results can be viewed on Neo’s web site at www.neomaterials.com/investors/ and on SEDAR at www.sedar.com.

HIGHLIGHTS OF Q1 2022 AND YEAR-END CONSOLIDATED PERFORMANCE

Neo reported strong year-over-year (“YoY”) gains in revenue, operating income, and Adjusted EBITDA¹ in the first quarter of 2022. The Company set new records in the quarter for sales, net income, and Adjusted EBITDA¹ since re-emerging as a public company in 2017.

For the three months ended March 31, 2022, consolidated revenue was $166.3 million compared to $130.9 million for the same period in the prior year; an increase of $35.4 million or 27.1%. Neo reported a net income of $22.7 million, or $0.55 per share, compared to $7.6 million, or $0.20 per share, in the same period of 2021. Adjusted Net Income⁽¹⁾ totaled $23.5 million, or $0.57 per share, compared to $15.1 million, or $0.40 per share, in the corresponding period of the prior year. Adjusted EBITDA¹ was $33.1 million, a 47.6% jump over Adjusted EBITDA of $22.4 million in the first quarter of 2021.

As of March 31, 2022, Neo had cash and cash equivalents of $61.1 million plus restricted cash of $1.3 million, compared to $89.0 million plus $1.3 million as at December 31, 2021. In the three months ended March 31, 2022, Neo distributed $3.2 million in dividends to its shareholders. As of March 31, 2022, Neo had approximately $41.3 million available under its credit facilities with $18.9 million drawn, compared to $6.5 million drawn at December 31, 2021.

“While the world has been impacted by many macroeconomic headwinds, causing volatility across all sectors, all of our plants continued to service the needs of our global customers with relentless focus, resulting in strong financial performance,” said Constantine Karayannopoulos, CEO of Neo. “Our European downstream expansion plans are on track and we remain excited and encouraged with the progress made to date concerning our discussions with government officials in Estonia and with the relevant EU Institutions in Brussels – as well as with prospective OEM and Tier 1 and 2 customers in Europe – who are providing strong early indications of interest leading us to believe the first phase of our plans could be sold out by its start of production.”

(1) Neo reports non-IFRS measures such as “Adjusted Net Income”, “Adjusted Earnings per Share”, “Adjusted EBITDA”, “Adjusted EBITDA Margin” and “EBITDA”. Please see information on this and other non-IFRS measures in the “Non-IFRS Measures” section of this news release and in the MD&A.

For the three months ended March 31, 2022, revenues of $166.3 million were 27.1% higher, than the three months ended March 31, 2021.

Neo reported operating income of $28.7 million and net income of $22.7 million for the three months ended March 31, 2022. Operating income in the three months ended March 31, 2022, was higher in C&O and Rare Metals but lower in Magnequench.

Adjusted EBITDA⁽¹⁾ for the three months ended March 31, 2022, was $33.1 million, an increase of $10.7 million or 47.6% compared to the same period of the prior year. Similar to operating income, in the three months ended March 31, 2022, Adjusted EBITDA⁽¹⁾ was higher in C&O and Rare Metals but lower in Magnequench.

MAGNEQUENCH SEGMENT RESULTS

TABLE 2: Selected Magnequench Results
	Year-over-Year Comparison
	Q1 2022	Q1 2021
Volume (tonnes)	1,305	1,725
($000s)
Revenue	74,015	64,905
Operating income	10,236	11,090
EBITDA ⁽¹⁾	13,547	13,965
Adjusted EBITDA ⁽¹⁾	12,778	13,432

(1) Neo reports non-IFRS measures such as "Adjusted Net Income", "Adjusted Earnings per Share", "Adjusted EBITDA", "Adjusted EBITDA Margin" and "EBITDA". Please see information on this and other non-IFRS measures in the "Non-IFRS Measures" section of this news release and in the MD&A.

For the three months ended March 31, 2022, volumes in the Magnequench segment saw a decline with respect to the prior-year period as well as sequentially, driven largely by the recent spike in COVID-19 in Asia, several natural disasters impacted production facilities and customers, and the ongoing semiconductor chip shortage.

Margins in the Magnequench segment were particularly strong in the quarter due to increasing rare earth magnetic prices which began in the fourth quarter of 2020 and continued to mid-March 2022. Magnequench has pass-through agreements on the vast majority of its contracts and with rising rare earth magnetic prices, Magnequench has been passing through the higher replacement costs while utilizing some of the lower cost inventory on hand. Pass-through is a key strategic focus of Magnequench and ensures that Magnequench focuses on generating long term sustainable and value-added margins.

CHEMICALS & OXIDES (“C&O”) SEGMENT RESULTS

TABLE 3: Selected C&O Results
	Year-over-Year Comparison
	Q1 2022	Q1 2021
Volume (tonnes)	2,099	2,423
($000s)
Revenue	67,662	54,390
Operating income	18,477	12,122
EBITDA ⁽¹⁾	18,968	5,887
Adjusted EBITDA ⁽¹⁾	19,910	12,918

(1) Neo reports non-IFRS measures such as “Adjusted Net Income”, “Adjusted Earnings per Share”, “Adjusted EBITDA”, “Adjusted EBITDA Margin” and “EBITDA”. Please see information on this and other non-IFRS measures in the “Non-IFRS Measures” section of this news release and in the MD&A.

The C&O segment continues to see strong demand for various rare earth products, particularly its magnetic-based products used in electrification of automobiles and other environmentally sustainable technologies. The combination of higher prices and higher demand resulted in strong financial performance for the C&O segment compared to the prior periods, particularly driven by premium sales to key customers in March, where rare earth prices peaked in the quarter. In C&O’s environmental catalysts business, volumes were reasonably strong in the three months ended March 31, 2022, although they were slower than the comparable quarter in the prior year, which benefited from customers refilling their supply chains. Volumes were negatively impacted by the slowdown of automotive production but rebounded a little after lower volumes in the third and fourth quarters of 2021. C&O’s environmentally protective water treatment solutions business continues to perform well with higher volume and new customer adoption, although sales volume growth expectations were partially impacted by the challenges in global shipping and logistics availability.

RARE METALS SEGMENT RESULTS

TABLE 4: Selected Rare Metals Results
	Year-over-Year Comparison
	Q1 2022	Q1 2021
Volume (tonnes)	137	118
($000s)
Revenue	29,062	16,716
Operating income	3,723	258
EBITDA ⁽¹⁾	4,512	2,154
Adjusted EBITDA ⁽¹⁾	4,341	903

(1) Neo reports non-IFRS measures such as “Adjusted Net Income”, “Adjusted Earnings per Share”, “Adjusted EBITDA”, “Adjusted EBITDA Margin” and “EBITDA”. Please see information on this and other non-IFRS measures in the “Non-IFRS Measures” section of this news release and in the MD&A.

Rare Metals continued its trend of a strong fourth quarter of 2021 with a strong first quarter of 2022. Rare Metals showed strength in pricing for key products such as hafnium and tantalum while able to benefit from lower-cost inventory on hand. The recycling purchases and activities of Rare Metals were particularly impactful to lowering its overall material costs.

The Rare Metals business continues to make progress in several key strategic initiatives, including selling more products outside of the aerospace industry, expanding its customer base, and diversifying its total end-market exposure. Sales prices in a number of end markets have recovered and gallium-based products are exhibiting improved market demand.

NON-IFRS MEASURES

This news release refers to certain non-IFRS financial measures and ratios such as “Adjusted Net Income”, “EBITDA”, “Adjusted EBITDA”, and “Adjusted EBITDA Margin”. These measures and ratios are not recognized measures under IFRS, do not have a standardized meaning prescribed by IFRS, and may not be comparable to similar measures presented by other companies. Rather, these measures and ratios are provided as additional information to complement IFRS financial measures by providing further understanding of Neo’s results of operations from management’s perspective. Neo’s definitions of non-IFRS measures used in this news release may not be the same as the definitions for such measures used by other companies in their reporting. Non-IFRS measures and ratios have limitations as analytical tools and should not be considered in isolation nor as a substitute for analysis of Neo’s financial information reported under IFRS. Neo uses non-IFRS financial measures and ratios to provide investors with supplemental measures of its base-line operating performance and to eliminate items that have less bearing on operating performance or operating conditions and thus highlight trends in its core business that may not otherwise be apparent when relying solely on IFRS financial measures. Neo believes that securities analysts, investors and other interested parties frequently use non-IFRS financial measures and ratios in the evaluation of issuers. Neo’s management also uses non-IFRS financial measures in order to facilitate operating performance comparisons from period to period. For definitions of how Neo defines such financial measures and ratios, please see the “Non-IFRS Financial Measures” section of Neo’s management’s discussion and analysis filing for the three months ended March 31, 2022, available on Neo’s web site at www.neomaterials.com and on SEDAR at www.sedar.com.
