The Board does not anticipate that the acceptance of any of the resignations will constitute a “change of control” for purposes of the Company’s employment and consulting agreements. A copy of the Policy is available on the Company’s website at www.nickel28.com.

Given the circumstances, the Board believes that the offers of resignation should be considered in accordance with the principles of the Policy with the benefit of independent perspective and judgment. Accordingly, the Board announced today the appointment of C. Ian Ross to the Board to serve as a new independent director, effective immediately. Mr. Ross has been appointed to serve as a member of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee and Compensation Committee and it is expected that Mr. Ross will, with the benefit of advice from independent counsel, consider whether the resignations should be accepted and make recommendations in accordance with the Policy.
