

Red Light Holland Announces Listing on Frankfurt Stock Exchange

written by Raj Shah | June 11, 2020

June 11, 2020 (Source) – Red Light Holland Corp. (CSE: TRIP) (“Red Light Holland” or the “Company”), an Ontario-based corporation positioning itself to engage in the production, growth and sale of a premium brand of magic truffles to the legal, recreational market within the Netherlands, is pleased to announce the listing of its common shares on the Frankfurt Stock Exchange (“FSE”) under the symbol “4YX”. The Company’s common shares continue to be listed on the Canadian Securities Exchange (“CSE”) under the symbol “TRIP”.

“The listing of the Company’s common shares on the Frankfurt Stock Exchange is an important step as we set up shop in the Netherlands, which neighbours Germany. The Frankfurt Stock Exchange will provide the Company with access to a larger number of potential investors and help expand the Company’s shareholder base within Europe,” said Todd Shapiro, Chief Executive Officer and Director of the Company. “I’ve received numerous emails from funds and individuals within Europe, asking to invest in Red Light Holland, and I’m happy to say that our team has eased that process for Europeans to allow them to invest in Red Light Holland and our vision,” continued Mr. Shapiro.

The FSE is the world’s third largest organized exchange-trading market in terms of turnover and dealing in securities, and the largest stock exchange in Germany. The FSE facilitates advanced electronic trading, settlement and information systems allowing it to meet the growing requirements of cross-border trading. With the Company's common shares now be cross-listed on the CSE and the FSE, Red Light Holland believes that it has achieved a notable milestone by creating more liquidity for its existing and potential shareholders and increasing market awareness.
