Marc Seelenfreund, CEO and Chairman of Siyata Mobile, commented, “We are truly honoured to be recognized as a top 50 company within the Toronto Venture Stock Exchange. This validates the hard work Siyata and its employees have done over the past two years since first listing on the Venture Exchange in 2015. We look forward to bringing more success to our company and our shareholders as we continue our aggressive growth and global expansion in 2018.”

As part of the award, the Toronto Venture Stock Exchange recorded an interview with Siyata CEO and Chairman Marc Seelenfreund. To view the interview please click here.

As part of its North American growth strategy, the flagship Uniden® UV350 4G/LTE device is currently undergoing device approval with both Canadian and U.S. Tier 1 operators, and the company aims to launch within the first half of 2018.

About Siyata

A TSX Venture Top 50 Company, Siyata Mobile Inc. is a leading global developer and provider of cellular communications systems for enterprise customers, specializing in connected vehicle products for professional fleets, marketed under the Uniden® Cellular brand. Since developing the world's first 3G connected vehicle device, Siyata has been a pioneer in the industry, launching the world's first 4G LTE all-in-one fleet communications device in 2017. Incorporating voice, push-to-talk over cellular, data, and fleet management solutions into a single device, the company aims to become the connected vehicle communications device of choice for commercial vehicles and fleets around the world.

Siyata also offers rugged phones for industrial users and signal boosters for homes, buildings, and fleets with poor cell coverage. Siyata's customers include cellular operators, commercial vehicle technology distributors, and fleets of all sizes in Canada, the U.S., Europe, Australia, and the Middle East.
