The 8020 platform enables Viridium to keep the investment community abreast of current developments such as corporate updates and engage directly with investors through a social media portal. 8020 Connect was the first social media platform to connect existing and potential investors to the Executive Management teams of publicly traded companies. The interactive structure of the portal provides an opportunity for interested parties to communicate with Viridium and supports the development of the Company's investor audience.
Mr. Jay Garnett, Chief Executive Officer, commented: "Viridium is committed to increasing our engagement with our investment community. With the recent appointment of our Investor Relations Ambassador and now 8020 Connect's social media platform, we look forward to further direct communication with our stakeholders and investors."

Mr. D'Arcy Funfer, President of 8020 Connect, stated: "In addition to expanding our platform, 8020 Connect has been successfully expanding our investor network. This network will help Viridium, and other companies on our platform, launch their social media presence and increase their investor audience through active participation."
