written by Raj Shah | April 14, 2025

April 14, 2025 (Source) – Western Uranium & Vanadium Corp. (CSE: WUC) (OTCQX: WSTRF) (“Western” or the “Company”) is pleased to announce that the Company has entered into an Ore Purchase Agreement (“Agreement”) with Energy Fuels Inc. (NYSE American: UUUU) (TSX:EFR).

Western plans to commence hauling around the beginning of May, making deliveries to Energy Fuels’ White Mesa Mill, the only operational conventional uranium/vanadium mill in the United States. Deliveries will be sourced from previously mined production that has been stockpiled at the Company’s flagship Sunday Mine Complex. The Agreement is for a one year period, and provisions for the delivery of up to 25,000 short tons of uranium bearing ore. The purchase price will be calculated based upon the uranium grade of each closed lot according to the agreed pricing schedule.

George Glasier, Western’s CEO stated: “This Agreement strengthens Western’s strategic position and accelerates our generation of revenues, while rewarding shareholder investments that have yielded our current stockpiles. The collaboration with Energy Fuels provides synergies and leverage for both companies, while the North American nuclear fuel supply chain benefits from expedited near-term production of uranium resources.”
